Farm Life

and found him sleeping the last

It is a common complaint that the farm and farm life are not appreciated by our people. We long for the more elegant pursuits or the way and fashions of the town But the farmer has the most sane and natu ral occupation, and ought to find life weeter, if less highly seasoned, than any other He alone, strictly speak ing, has a home How can a man take root and thrive without land He writes his history upon his field How many ties, how many resources he has, his friendships with his cat tle, his team, his dog, his trees the satisfaction in his growing crops in his improved fields, his intimacy with nature, with bird and beast, and with the quickening elemental forces, his co operation with the clouds, the sun, the seasons, heat, wind, rain, frost Nothing will take the various social distempers, which the city and artificial life breed out of a man like farming, like direct and loving con tict with the soil. It draws out the porson It humbles him, teaches him patience and reverence, and re stores the proper tone to his system

Cling to the farm make much of t put yourself into it, bestow your heart and your brain upon it, so that it will savor of you and radiate your vii tue after your day's work is done

The Decatur Furniture Company. A meeting of the stockholders of the Decatur Farniture Company, which was lands in Piatt county, which was held at recently incorporated under the laws of Monticello on Wednesday, was a sale to Illinois, with a capital stock of $150,000, pay debts amounting to $40,000 due the was held this (Thursday) forenoon. The creditors of Caldwell & Madden, large stock following named persons were chosen dealers, and the lands offered for sale members of the board of directors: J. J. were all grass lands. Those present at Peddecord, L. Burrows, R. G. Peddecord | the sale from Decatur were C. P. Thatchand M. F. Kanan. The directors elected er, J. A. Brown, Dr. Randall, M. E. officers of the company as follows: Presi- Schroeder and J. A. Swearingen, and dent, J. J. Peddecord; vice-president and there were also present parties from Clingeneral manager, ¹⁴ G. Matrimonial Joy. The marriage of Mr. Harry Clay Dempsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dempsey, and Miss Jennie L. Hawks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David B. Hawks, was solemnized last evening, (February 1st) at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 12 West William street, in the presence of the relatives and a very few near neighbors and triends. The Episcopal wedding ceremony was used by the officiating clergyman, Rev. Walter H. Moore, rector of St. John's church. The usual hearty congratulations followed the marriage, and a fine wedding repast was served. A large number of gifts were presented to the bride. The young couple are well and favorably known to our people, and all will join the REPUBLICAN in wishing them all manner of happiness and good luck in their new relation in life. Mr. Demosey is a valued traveling salesman for the Decatur Furniture Company, and commenced married life to-day very properly by ordering the Daily REPUBLICAN sent to his new home. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey have pleasantly furnished rooms in the Dr. Walters property, on the corner south of the second ward school house occupied by Mr. Heilburn and family.

120 Days in Jail. In the court report in these columna there was an error in reference to the Mrs. Elizabeth Davis' sentence. She was giv en 20 days imprisonment in the county jail for keeping a nuisance, and 100 dayimprisonment on 10 counts for selling liquor without license. She was fined $200, for keeping a house of ill fame, $200 for keeping a nuisance, $1500 on 50 counts for selling liquor without license, making the total of her fines $1900 as given last evening. Her imprisonment on the 20 days sentence commenced yesterday and at the expiration of the 20 days she will begin serving out the 100 days sentence. Her term of imprisonment on the jail sentences will expire on June 1st, 1882. At the May term of court the prisoner will probably be tried on the charge of assaulting John Lahey with intent to commit murder. Had she not received a jail sentence she would probably have been compelled to remain an inmate of the county jail, as she could not possibly give the $3000 bail fixed in the Lahey case.
